Lesson 2
Stringing Things Together

- Stress that the students will work as Materials Engineers
- Students may need support in understanding the difference between structure and process
  - Eggs could be mentioned as an example of raw material changed into scrambled or hard-boiled by the Process
- Use a photo or real sample of a cotton plant to discuss where cotton comes from.