Before playing the Technology Match Up! game, look at the items on each card and discuss individual characteristics and functions as a class. The will help to clarify the word function for your students and will help limit questions regarding the objects on the cards.

Provide your class with a brief demonstration of how the game is played before handing out the cards. This will ensure that all students understand exactly how to play the matching game.